SHERIDAN MARKHAM SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The Sheridan Markham Scholarship will be awarded to a senior at the annual Conservatory Banquet of the Tarpon Springs High School Leadership Conservatory for the Arts.

This scholarship seeks to honor the Conservatory student who has demonstrated the most personal growth during their tenure in the Conservatory. The scholarship will recognize the student that has utilized the leadership curriculum, in and out of school, and in all aspects of his or her life. The student will be recognized for being a model citizen and role model during high school, and for having a vision to serve others in the future.

QUALIFICATIONS:

PARTICIPATION: Scholarship is open graduating Seniors.

GPA: No minimum GPA required.

Volunteer

Service: List volunteer service during high school

ESSAY: Please complete a 600-800 essay on the attached form that describes the "true" you and answers the following:

High school is a time when you begin to reveal your adult identity. During my time in the program, I was able to discover the true me. I was exposed to so many opportunities and people that I began to dream bigger and take on more challenges with confidence. Please answer the following questions in detail:

1. Describe a situation that has challenged you and required you to implement the skills you have learned about leadership.
2. How has the Leadership Program helped you discover who you are? What role did the arts play in your development?
3. If you could create a non-profit organization or charity foundation, what would it be and who would benefit? Think outside of the box. How would your organization be different from others that currently exist?
4. Please explain your volunteer service through out high school.
5. Finally, list your cumulative GPA for high school.
